We are among the leading manufacturers and suppliers of highly efficient industrial wrapping and packaging machines. We customize our products to suit the diverse demands of our customers.

About Us

Advance & Auto Pack System is a unique packing machine manufacturing company which offers high quality but affordable packing machines for variety of different products. Manufacturing Plant is located in Mohali, Punjab which is 250 Km. from New Delhi the capital of India. Mohali is just 10Km from Chandigarh (The City Beautiful) and in the foot of Himalya. Advance & Auto Pack System offers entire range packing machines right from simple mechanical packing & wrapping machines to servo controlled hi-tech packing machines. Our engineers have developed multi-axis servo controlled flow wrappers for Modified Atmosphere Packing. These innovative developments keeps us a step ahead of others. We can provide you exact & complete solution of your entire packing requirement. Our people understand that packing is not just to pack a product but it contributes in promotion and growth of your business. The experience gained through many years of work has taught us the importance of customer satisfaction, new research & developments , pre and post-sales service etc. Thanks to our strong and consolidated partnerships with some of the most important Indian and Foreigner manufacturers, we are now able to provide whole packing line solutions as well as single machine.
